

Pacific Northwest Chapter

Please join the Association for Women Geoscientists' Pacific NW Chapter for our next Zoom meeting featuring Marcia Knadle presenting a New Zealand Geologic Travelogue, based on last winter's AWG New Zealand field trip.

Date: Saturday, November 14

Sign in / Social: 1:30 pm

Presentation: 2:00 pm

We'll have 30 minutes for people to get signed in and to socialize a bit. The presentation will start at 2:00 pm, and Q&A will end around 3:45. The presentation will likely take a bit over an hour.

To register for this meeting, please click on the link in the email announcement. You'll then receive an email from Zoom with a link to enter the meeting. Please register by midnight on November 13.

About the speaker:

Marcia Knadle is President of the AWG Pacific NW Chapter and is chair of the AWG Field Trips Committee. As such, she helped organize the New Zealand field trip. She's a retired hydrogeologist who worked for the EPA in Seattle for 29 years following several years with the USGS in Tacoma. She holds geology degrees from the University of Puget Sound (BS) and the University of Montana (MS).
